As a PGA Quarter Century Club Member, over the years, I have learned as a player and as an instructor, the importance of properly fitted equipment and professional golf instruction. “Golf Digest” award winning PGA Instructors, Dr. Gary Wiren, Craig Harmon and Hank Haney have had a direct influence on the content of my teaching methodologies which revolve around ball flight assessment. I believe in a fundamental tailored approach to create an effective short game, consistent iron play, and a strong long game...eliminating frustration in the quest for the ultimate golf experience.
